Cars were stopping on the opposite side of the road. I wondered, why? There was a herd of elk on the eastern slope. What a sight!

Thursday I was walking down the road when a killdeer flew up only a few feet away from me. Is this going to be an early spring?

Friday, while relaxing in the living room, Henry said there is a bird that keeps flying to and fro past the window. Pretty soon it landed on the TV antenna. It was a robin! Will we have an early spring? If we do, we may make it through this cold winter.

We rode up by the hot springs to see the deer Sunday, but not one did we see. There hasn't been enough snow to push them down, I guess.

I received two letters from Nevada this week. One from the O.E. Lewis' and one from Pauleen Cluff Foutz. Both contained a clipping from Latter-day Family Journal, In Search of..., by Pauleen C. Foutz. In the clipping Pauleen inserted the story that had been published in the Wasatch Wave telling of Christmas at the Sweeten home. What a compliment!

Thank you, Bob and Phyllis, for sharing your Christmas story.

Last Monday afternoon, as we were on our way to Provo to attend a family birthday remembrance of our father, we saw a magnificent Wasatch State Park golf course. Teams came from Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming, Idaho, and Utah.

Frank Vincent won first place in the six-dog team. Congratulations. Frank's son, Eric, won second place with his three-dog team. Debbie Berry, a lady from New Mexico, won first place with her three-dog team. Gary Jacobson from Idaho won first place with his eight-dog team.

This Saturday and Sunday the Vincent family will be in Leadville, Colorado, where they will compete with 80 teams. We wish them well.

We bid farewell to Larry and Eilidh Elliott and children, Jillian and Canyon Jack, Monday. I wept. Larry said, "Hey, we're only moving, not dying. And only a few miles away." They were transferred to the Olmstead Electric Plant at the mouth of Provo Canyon. They have a larger home and are nearer to Eilidh's folks. Never-the-less, this valley's loss will be felt by all, especially during Fair Days.

Daniel "Dan" Bevan has been chosen to be the Utah Power and Light plant manager here. Dan is from Tooele, Utah. Dan's wife, Terrie, and children, Kristi, 13, Cortney, 11, Jaren, 9, and Ashby, 6, will move up after school closes in Tooele. Dan is a high priest membership ward clerk at the Tooele 7th Ward.

Wasatch County Federation of Republican Women will meet at the home of Marilyn Urry, Friday, Feb. 5 at 12 noon for their first meeting of the season. Ron Crittenden will be the speaker. All county women who value their Republican views or would like to learn more of Republican values, call President Betty Smedley, 654-0505.

Kyle and Paula Probst are happy with the news that their daughter, Ann, and her husband, Dave Ruechert of Sandy, have a baby boy born at the Cottonwood Hospital Jan. 26. He weighed in at six pounds, eight ounces and measured 20 inches.

Alan and Genene Cluff have a healthy baby boy born Sunday, Dec. 31 at 9:40 a.m. at the University of Utah Hospital. He balanced the scales at seven pounds, 11 ounces. Measured 20 inches.

Robin Stone's parents, Glen and June Pugmire, have just returned home from a mission in Bermuda. They are staying a while with the Stone family while they search for a new home.
